JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS, WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 28, 1906.

DISAGREEMENT IS REPORTED

BY JOINT SCALE COMMITTEE OF COAL OPERATORS

No Change Whatever in Situation—Discussions and Arguments in Joint Conference Productive of No Results.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 27.—The joint scale committee of the bituminous coal operators and miners of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and western Pennsylvania to day reported disagreement to the joint conference of the central district and adjourned to meet to-morrow. Discussion, and arguments presented during the afternoon by both sides showed no change whatever in the situation and established the fact, so far as indications can determine, that they are no nearer agreement than they were in January, when the first conference was held. The present wage scale will expire Saturday and unless agreement is reached before its expiration 25,000 miners in the four states will be called out.

President Mitchell opened the discussion in the joint conference after there had been silence for ten minutes, during which each side was waiting for the other to make the first move. He said:

"It was my expectation when we convened here this afternoon that some proposition looking to an adjustment of our differences would be submitted by the operators. It is evident that they have not agreed among themselves to submit for the consideration of this convention any proposition looking to the settlement or adjustment of our relations. Every one here who has heard the report read by the secretary of the joint scale committee will know that the miners parties to that joint scale conference, have gone out of their way, have even assumed authority not vested in them by the miners' convention to meet the grave and full responsibilities placed upon them not only as miners, but as countrymen and citizens, by the request and at the suggestion of the president of our nation, and it will become evident from the votes reported here by at least four of the states who must, and who rightfully shall, assume the responsibility for disagreement, if no settlement is reached.

"One state—one large producing state—has come in here and voted for restoration of the scale of 1903. That state has not only voted its entire production, but it has announced in addition thereto an intention to vote its mines in Ohio and Illinois in favor of increased wages. It seems to me, gentlemen, that, instead of sitting quietly, the gentlemen from the operators' side ought to say something in defense of their position. And accepting all responsibilities that may come to me personally, without consultation with the gentlemen who employ me, I want to offer for the consideration, and I hope favorable consideration, of this convention a motion that as a basis of settlement there be a restoration of the scale, mining scale and day wage scale and dead work scale of 1903."

J. H. Winter, chairman of the operators, offered a substitute motion to adopt the present scale, with all the conditions existing at the time of its adoption, with the mining rate at Danville, Ill., for the base, and to include all cost of shooting, loading, unloading and inspection of shots. Speeches were made for the operators by J. C. Kolsem and Phil Penna of Indiana, H. N. Taylor of Illinois and H. L. Chapman of Ohio, all expressing the determination of the operators of those states to oppose an increase of wages and refuse to pay an advance.

For the miners, President Mitchell, Vice President Lewis and Secretary Wilson of the national organization, together with President Perry of the Illinois miners and O'Connor of the Indiana miners, expressed the determination of the miners to insist upon their demands for restoration of the wage scale of 1903, which is an increase of 5.55 per cent.

E. L. Robbins of the western Pennsylvania operators, who favors the increase demanded by the miners, did not speak during the afternoon.

Phil Penna of the Indiana operators, in his speech, suggested a settlement of the differences by arbitration. He said the operators represented have done business in joint scale conventions for twenty years and means were found to avoid industrial conflicts. "One thing is sure," he concluded, "the American people are not going to suffer any great inconvenience because of a disagreement over a paltry 5 per cent increase in wages. Adjournment until to-morrow was taken in the midst of the discussion. No vote was taken on any proposition during the afternoon."

ATHLETIC MEET.

Chicago, March 27.—The biggest indoor athletic track meet ever held in the west began here to night at the Coliseum. The tournament has an entry list of 335 athletes representing eighty colleges, grammar schools, high schools, athletic clubs and other institutions. All preliminaries in eighteen events were decided to night and the finals will be run off to-morrow night. The college competition is almost entirely between Chicago, Wisconsin and Notre Dame universities, although several other colleges have entered small teams. Among the noted athletes who took part in the tournament were Archie Hahn, formerly of the University of Michigan; C. L. Parsons of the University of Wisconsin, and E. Larsen of the Central Y. M. C. A., Chicago.

LODGED IN JAIL.
La Junta, Colo., March 27.—Rev. W. G. Connelley, former pastor of the Presbyterian church at LaMar, held for trial on charges of immoral conduct, was safely lodged in jail here to day, after having been hastily removed from LaMar to prevent lynching. Connelley left LaMar hurriedly two weeks ago. He was arrested at Waxahachie, Texas, and brought back to LaMar yesterday. Several hundred men thronged the streets threatening to hang the minister. On being arraigned in court Connelley acknowledged his guilt.

BASEBALL COMMISSION

New Rules Adopted Regarding "Covering Up" Players.

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 27.—The national baseball commission to day adopted new rules in regard to "covering up" of players. Punishment for offenders was fixed as follows:

For the first offense of a major league club, fine of $1,000; class A, $750; class B, $500; class C, $250; class D, $200. Repetition of the offense will carry with it suspension from protection of the national agreement for six months, players of the clubs incurring this penalty being free from reservation until the reinstatement takes place.

The commission also decided that no national agreement player could assume the management of any national agreement club, even if only to direct play from the bench, without first securing a release from the club having him under reservation.

"I consider these the most important rules the commission has ever made," was the comment of Chairman Hermann on the additions to the code. "In the covering up rule, the fact that a player is returned to a minor league club without trail shall constitute prima facie evidence that the player has been covered up and the commission will act accordingly."

THE BOWLERS

Tournament at Louisville Closed Last Night.

Louisville, Ky., March 27.—The bowling tournament closed to night. There were forty-five prizes for five-man teams ranging from $450 to $35. The three highest teams finishing in this class were: Century No. 1, Chicago, 2,794; Lelsy, No. 1, Peoria, Ill., 2,781; Brunswick-Balke Colander, Chicago, 2,754.

One hundred prizes grading from $500 down, were contested for by a great number of two-man teams. The three highest prize winners in this class are: Hamilton and Husey, Philadelphia, 1,263; Dresden and Reed, Columbus, Ohio, 1,257; Pfeuffer brothers, Cincinnati, 1,214.

In the individual class there were 175 prizes, the highest being $175, the list running down to ten or twenty at $5. The winners of the three highest prizes are: F. T. Favour, Oshkosh, Wis., 693; O. S. Bradley, Baltimore, 683; W. Roach, Wilmington, Del., 662.

RAISE LIQUOR TAX

Columbus, Ohio, March 27.—The Alkin bill, increasing the liquor tax throughout Ohio from $50 to $1,000, passed the senate this afternoon, 25 to 11. This makes it practically a law, as Governor Patterson is known to favor it and will sign the measure. The senate was packed to suffocation when the bill was passed and a great shout went up on announcement of the vote.

FOUGHT A DRAW.

Milwaukee, March 27.—Jimmy Gardner of Lowell, Mass., and Jack Dougherty of Milwaukee fought eight rounds to a draw to night. Gardner had a shade the best of the bout up to the end of the seventh round. In the eighth both fought fiercely from start to finish. The Milwaukee boy had decidedly the better of the final round.

Miss Hattie Davenport has returned to her home in Pisgah after a visit of a few days with friends and relatives in this city.

REPLIED TO SHACKELFORD

ANSWER MADE BY SPEAKER CANNON.

Disclaims Responsibility for Differences Between Minority Members of House—Senate Proceedings—Other News.

Washington, March 27.—The house to day witnessed a most unusual thing, the speaker rising on the floor in the midst of a spirited discussion on reciprocity and tariff revision and disclaiming responsibility for differences between minority members. It was toward the close of the debate on the urgency deficiency bill, which appropriated, among other things, for the forthcoming conference at Rio Janeiro, when Shackelford of Missouri rose to explain what he intended saying last week in relation to the Missouri volunteers bill when he was taken from the floor by Tanney of Minnesota, who objected to the personal character of the remarks. Shackelford read his remarks, which charged the speaker with holding up the bill referred to. The speaker instantly arose on completion of Shackelford's statement. There was a busy scene of expectancy all over the house. The Republicans gathered about their chief, Democrats crowded the aisles and it was a highly dramatic moment when the speaker, himself pale, but carrying a look of grim determination, said in a voice that reached every corner of the chamber:

"If it afford him (Shackelford) any consolation to make me a stalking horse on account of a quarrel with minority leaders, well and good."

Applause ran through the hall, which was hushed by the chairman's determination not to let the house get away from the point at issue. The major portion of the day was taken up with discussions on reciprocity and tariff revision incident to passage of the urgency deficiency bill, the house refusing to instruct delegates to the international conference to consider reciprocity in conjunction with the Monroe doctrine.

A few paragraphs of the legislative appropriation bill were considered and the tactics heretofore resorted to by Prince and Hardwick in defeating provision by points of order were resumed.

SENATE.
Tillman and McCumber divided the time of the senate to day, the North Dakota senator devoting himself to the railroad rate question exclusively, and the South Carolina senator discussing various questions.

Tillman made especial inquiry concerning the status of his resolution relative to the use of national bank funds in politics and incidentally spoke of District Attorney Jerome's recent utterances and of Judge Humphrey's decision in the beef trust cases, declaring in the latter matter that the decision against the attorney general had merely repeated what he had said in the case of former Secretary Morton.

Foraker defended Judge Humphrey and Tillman declared he had not meant to attack the judge, but the law.

McCumber picked innumerable flaws in the rate bill, predicting that if enacted into a law it would fail entirely to meet the demands of the public. He said, however, he would vote for the bill if properly amended.

NEW RULES FOR HOUSE.
Two rules were introduced in the house to day for consideration of the legislative appropriation bill. One rule was introduced by Tanney and provides that "it shall be in order to consider without intervention of point of order all remaining paragraphs of the bill," and also "to insert in any part of the bill any paragraph reported as a part of the bill and heretofore ruled out on point of order."

The adoption of this rule will result in placing back in the bill all provisions which were eliminated on points of order, and will make future consideration of the measure free from interruptions which have been made.

Mr. Gillett of Massachusetts, member of the appropriations committee, introduced a resolution for an amendment to the permanent rules, which gives the appropriations committee authority to change the number of employees in any of the government departments or bureaus, and to change the salaries which do not amount to more than $1,500 annually.

NAVAL MANEUVERS.

Naval maneuvers of the great lakes have been authorized by the secretary of the navy from Aug. 5 to 10, when naval militias of states bordering on the great lakes will rendezvous at a point not yet selected for their first combined maneuvers. The naval militias of Minnesota, Michigan, Illinois and Ohio will participate in the movements under the direction of Commander Henry Morrell of the United States cruiser Wolverine, the single American warship permitted to cruise on the great lakes under treaties with Great Britain.

CAPITAL NOTES.

A bill permitting the building of a dam across the St. Joseph river, in Berrien county, Michigan, was passed by the house this afternoon.

GOLDEN ROD HAS FIRST

Claims to Distinction as Our National Flower—Is Found in Every State in the Union—Many Have Adopted It.

What is our national flower? This question bobs up periodically and its present prominence is due no doubt to the approach of arbor day and spring flowers. Opinions are varied on this subject and there may not be any definite legislation by our national congress which has legalized any specific flower nevertheless through action by various states and by a recognition of the flower which is indigenous to all of the states and in fact is seen in every locality the Golden Rod may justly be called our national flower. By adopting the carnation may dispute this claim, but as this flower is an importation from China, there is nothing distinctly American about it save its popularity and general employment for boutonniere and decorative purposes. The organization of the carnation league soon after the death of the lamented William McKinley has added strength to the contention of many that the carnation is really the national flower.

Miss Murphree of Murfreesboro, Tenn., the author who writes under the name of Charles Egbert Cradock and whose stories of Eastern Tennessee life have interested many, declares that the Golden Rod is our national flower and her opinion is given added weight from the fact that three states of the union, Oregon, Nebraska and North Dakota, have adopted the flower as a state flower. Michigan has the apple blossom as the state flower and the columbine represents the floral preference in Massachusetts. The states of Ohio and Tennessee have expressed through their legislatures a preference for the Golden Rod as a national flower.

Among the questions asked at a recent state pharmacologist examination was the question: "Name the national flower and for what medicinal purposes can it be used?" Those who gave the Golden Rod as an answer were given 100 per cent on the question. The botanical name of Golden Rod is Solidago.

FIRE LOSSES.

Johnstown, Pa., March 27.—Fire started at 12:30 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning and threatened great loss to the business district. One person, a fireman, was killed by a falling wall.

At 3 a. m. the fire continued to spread and is apparently beyond control.

AN AMERICAN

Man Under Arrest in Vienna—Admits He is Postoffice and Bank Robber.

Vienna, Austria, March 27.—A man who gave his name as James Howard when he was arrested in this city last October for robbing a depositor at the teller's window of a bank here, to day admitted to the judge before whom he was arraigned that he was Joseph Killoran, an American postoffice and bank robber. Killoran, Charles Allen, George Carson, Sid Yennie and Arny Russell, in the spring of 1905, robbed the postoffice at Springfield, Ill., of $5,000 worth of postage stamps and other valuables. All five were arrested in New York and committed to the Ludlow street jail. July 4, 1905, Killoran, Allen and Russell walked out of the jail, terrifying the keepers with bribe pipes, which were mistaken for revolvers. Subsequently Killoran was captured and sent to the southern Illinois penitentiary at Chester, being discharged on the expiration of his sentence.

GOES AFTER MATERIAL.

Boise, Idaho, March 27.—Stephen Adams, one of the men who have confessed regarding their connection with crimes in Colorado and this state charged against the so-called "inner circle" of the Western Federation of Miners, was taken to Pocatello to day to dig up a lot of material designated as Greek fire, which he claimed to have buried there late in the summer of 1903. Detectives and newspaper men accompanied Adams. In his confession Adams stated that he was sent by Haywood and Meyer to Pocatello to intercept a car load of non-union men being sent to Colorado. He was, he says, directed to kill the entire lot and expected to do so with the Greek fire. This was to be thrown into the car, where it would immediately envelope everything with fire that nothing could extinguish. He had two quart bottles and three smaller ones. The car of non-union men did not come through as expected and, after waiting a good while, the plan was given up. Adams then buried the stuff, packing the bottles in a tin can.

Madison, Wis., March 27.—At a University of Wisconsin students' demonstration to night, held in indignation over faculty hostility to football, the leading anti-football professors were burned in effigy.

SLOSSON DEFEATED.

New York, March 27.—Willie Happe defeated George Slosson here to night for the world's championship at 18-inch balk line billiards, one shot in by 500 points to 322.

TRIBUTE TO GEN. WHEELER

PRaise FOR LEADER OF TWO WARS

Celebration in His Honor at Atlanta, Ga.—"Corporal" Tanner, Head of G. A. R., One of the Speakers.

Atlanta, Ga., March 27.—Uniting in their tribute of veneration, honor and respect to the memory of Gen. Joseph Wheeler, leader in two wars, his comrades and foes in the sixties and his followers in the war for Cuban freedom gathered here to-day and joined in such a celebration as is accorded few men in military or civil life. Roused to a pitch of enthusiasm by the words of General Wheeler's friend and associate in war and in peace, former Commissioner John W. Maddox, the old soldiers shouted themselves hoarse. Stirred to their hearts by the tribute of "Corporal" James Tanner, commander in chief of the Grand Army, they stood in their places and cheered, waving hats and handkerchiefs and refused almost to be quieted. The address of Colonel Evans of the united confederate veterans and those of Governor Terrell and Maj. Charles R. Mills of Cleveland, Ohio, commander in chief of the Spanish-American war veterans, were all received with enthusiasm.

SOLUTION ASSURED

Plan of Americans to Settle Moroccan Police Question Well Received by Conference.

Algiers, Spain, March 27.—Ambassador White and the other American delegates to the Moroccan conference were showered with compliments to day for what is regarded as their sagacious intervention, which has assured a solution of the last remaining serious difficulty of the conference and final settlement of one of the most delicate and complicated questions ever brought before a conference for decision.

Austria's police proposal yesterday left the German and French delegates still occupying totally opposed standpoints relative to police inspection. White, seeing the danger of disagreement, took the initiative in an attempt to save the situation. He and his colleagues drew up a fresh scheme, laying down the proposition that the inspector shall report simultaneously to both the sultan and diplomatic corps at Tangier, the latter having authority to order inquiries into the workings of the Franco-Spanish police scheme, thus guaranteeing the carrying out of the conference decision and safeguarding foreign interests and commercial transactions. The diplomatic corps, after informing the sultan, may also at any time order the inspector to inquire and report, should any interested government present a complaint. The French and German delegates will submit the plan to their governments and express the view they will certainly concur. All other delegates approve the scheme.

The successful action of the American delegates has made certain a speedy end of the labors of the conference. No one now foresees the slightest obstacle to final accord.

HELPED HERSELF.

St. Louis, March 27.—Alvan Allen yesterday applied for a warrant for a woman whom he accused of borrowing 100 much money from him when he told her to help herself out of his pocket. Allen says he came to Alton three months ago with $25, and that on Sunday night he had $35 left. The woman asked for a loan, he says, and when he gave her permission to help herself she took all he had but $5. The warrant was refused. Allen said he would receive additional legacies amounting to nearly $5,000 before the end of the summer.

THE OIL HEARING

Proceedings at New York Ended—Unable to Secure Rockefeller as Witness.

New York, March 27.—The taking of testimony in this city in the proceedings brought by the state of Missouri to oust from that commonwealth the Standard Oil company of Indiana, the Waters-Pierce Oil company and the Republic Oil company, on the ground that they constitute a combination in restraint of trade, ended to day. Attorney General Hadley of Missouri announced that with to day's adjournment the New York proceedings were ended. He requested Commissioner Sanborn, before whom the witnesses testified, to send a certified copy of the testimony to the supreme court of Missouri, where it will become part of the record in the state's case.

Practically the last move Hadley made in the case was to introduce testimony showing difficulties under which most of

SUBJECT OF MUCH TALK

INTIMATION OF CHANCELLOR CRISIS.

Von Buelow Said to be Dissatisfied With Selection Made by Emperor of Germany—Chancellor Criticized.

Berlin, March 27.—Chancellor von Buelow's relations with Emperor William have been the subject of much talk with the public recently. Now and then a German newspaper has printed guardedly an intimation of a "chancellor crisis," which had been followed by denial on the part of newspapers having official connections. Since Herr von Tschirschky was appointed secretary of foreign affairs in January, in succession to the late Baron von Riehthoffen, it has been said that the chancellor was dissatisfied because Tschirschky was selected by the emperor without previous consultation with the chancellor. Every week brought out a new story. The one of the moment concerns the raising of the colonial bureau of the foreign office to cabinet grade, with Prince Ernest von Hohenlohe-Langenburg director of the bureau, to be colonial minister. Von Buelow proposed Prince von Hohenlohe-Langenburg for the place, but when an appropriation was refused by the reichstag appropriations committee, owing to the center party's opposition to Hohenlohe's anti-Semitic actions while regent of Saxony and Gotha during the minority reign of Duke Charles Edward, the chancellor, it is said, suggested that some one else must be chosen for the post. The emperor, however, took the view it was best to support Hohenlohe and insist on the reichstag making the appropriation. This question is likely to come up in the reichstag in a few days.

MATRIMONIAL

DUNCAN-BROWN.

Married at the home of the bride's parents, on East College avenue, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, Carl C. Duncan, of Peoria, and Miss Mabel C. Brown, of this city. Rev. R. E. Thrapp, of the Christian church, saying the words that made them man and wife. Promptly at the appointed hour the bridal party entered the room to the beautiful wedding march played by Miss Nina Mitchell. They were accompanied by Edwin Jackson and Miss Myrtle Duncan, sister of the groom. Only a few relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. Immediately after the ceremony an elegant wedding supper was served.

The bride was beautifully dressed in white silk poplin, trimmed with silk embroidery.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Brown and has always made her home in this city, and has the respect of a large circle of friends.

The groom was born and raised in this city, but left here three years ago for Peoria, where he is engaged as a machine blacksmith in the motor car company shops of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan expect to leave this morning at 7:40 for Peoria, where they will go to housekeeping at once. They will have the best wishes of a host of friends.

Among those from out of the city who attended the wedding were Mrs. William Brown and sons, Eugene and Russell, of Bloomington, and Miss Edith Young, of St. Louis.

SEASON ENDED.

Arthur Scott, first tenor of the Lyric quartet, which has been touring the country under the auspices of Clayton's bureau, Chicago, is in the city spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, on East College avenue, the lecture course season having closed. The Lyric quartet have been very successful in their work this year, and their entertainments have been enthusiastically received. It is possible arrangements may be made to appear at one of the churches here in the near future. Mr. Scott will leave in a few days for Valparaiso, Ind., where he has a number of engagements to sing.

A. Myers, employed by the Burlington on the cutoff south of the city, was injured Tuesday by falling from the trestle work to the ground about twenty feet below. Dr. Black was called and had the injured man removed to Passavant hospital and on examination found that his back was strained and bruised to some extent, but the indications are that he will be able to be out soon.

POPCORN GRAIN IN BOY'S LUNG.

St. Louis, March 27.—Henry Hartmann, the 4-year-old son of Mrs. Hartmann of Alton, is seriously ill with pulmonary abscess, due to a grain of popcorn being lodged in the boy's lung. He was eating popcorn seven weeks ago when he was taken with a spell of coughing and the grain was churled down his windpipe. A few days ago the abscess broke, and the attending physicians think the boy will recover.

Quincy, Ill., March 27.—The National Business college here to day made an assignment. The institution was capitalized at $100,000. Liabilities are $30,000; assets $100,000, but these are largely in notes given by students for tuition. John R. Hutchinson, president and manager of the college, who came here from Des Moines, was arrested on a charge of making false pretenses in connection with selling stock of the institution.

Quincy, Ill., March 27.—It is now positively known that Leonard Keck, Frederick Nicklsey and Wilfred Dickhut, three young men who left here for McCloud, Colo., were killed in the wreck at Adobe, Colo. One of the survivors has written that he left them in the smoking car not ten minutes before the accident and that their bodies had been completely incinerated.

GERMAN NAVAL BILL

Debate in the Reichstag on the Measure.

Berlin, March 27.—During the debate on the naval bill in the reichstag to day, Herr Spahn, center party leader, supported the government. He said Germany had to reckon on the fleets of France and Great Britain being arrayed against Germany's increasing fleet, adding: "We have for and must attain a point that the enemy will have to consider whether it will be wise to attack Germany or not. Parliament ought to accept the bill without hesitation."

Baron von Riehthoffen, conservative, said the nation was convinced of the necessity for a German fleet. It was impossible to have a colonial policy unless supported by a fleet.

Admiralty Secretary Tirpitz said he believed the naval program would only make the German fleet equal to that of France. All political parties, except socialists, expressed themselves in favor of the naval bill.

PRIMARY LAW KILLED.

Des Moines, Iowa, March 27.—Late this afternoon all hope of enactment of a state wide primary law was killed by the upper branch of the Iowa general assembly. When the senate refused to pass the primary bill offered early in the session, a modified measure endorsed by Governor Cummins, was passed by the house. This bill was defeated this afternoon by a vote of 51 to 45.

AGED MAN DROPS DEAD.

Quincy, March 27.—William H. White, formerly a farmer of Nelsonville, Minn., giving his age as 67 years, applied at the Burlington freight office here for work. He was given a truck yesterday morning and assigned to moving freight. Before he had worked two minutes he dropped dead from heart disease.

NO GAME FOR GIRLS.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 27.—Reform among girls at the University of Minnesota is the cry now of the college faculty, and the game of basketball, in which the Minnesota girls are proficient, seems to be doomed, as members of the faculty declare the game is not for girls and should not be played by them.

Mrs. Ralph Wilkinson and children.

of Chicago are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holle.

PREACHES ON MARRIAGE

Rev. Father Hickey Advises Bachelors and Young Men to Wed.

Springfield Journal: "Get Married" was the subject of Father Hickey's sermon yesterday at the morning services at the Church of the Immaculate Conception. The sermon was intended for the old bachelors and the younger members of the congregation. Father Hickey took for his text, "Increase and Multiply and Fill the Earth." In the course of his remarks he said that married life was intended by God for all, with the exception of those whose calling is such that married life would be an impediment to the proper fulfillment of their duties, such as the life of a priest.

Father Hickey told his congregation they could ask an old bachelor if his life had been a happy one and he will say, perhaps, that he is not sorry that he did not get married because he was so wretched now and if he married would make others wretched. But invariably the answer will be he regrets that he had not entered the married state, because he is now alone, wretched, miserable and on an outcast, caring for no one and few caring for him.

"Married life is a natural one," said Father Hickey, "and the one who does not get married, in the majority of cases, leads a sinful life. When a bachelor gets married and has wealth all the interest a person has in him is to inherit his money when he dies. And then when the old bachelor dies, there is no one to mourn his loss, no children to care for him in his old age, no wife to sympathize with him in his troubles."

ARBOR DAY.

For the promotion of arboriculture, the conservation of moisture, the prevention of widespread droughts and general barrenness, the adornment of homes, the adding of beauty to our parks and places of public interest and for the comfort of the people generally, a day to be known as Arbor day was set apart by an act of the general assembly some years ago.

To bring the matter more fully to the attention of the people, the Illinois State Horticultural society urges its members and all others interested to co-operate with all local societies, with the public schools and with individual efforts for the proper observance of the day.

To create a more general interest and that the young people in particular, throughout our state may realize something of the importance of this work, we should endeavor to inculcate, as far as possible, the love of nature and nature studies in our schools, a proper regard for all useful plant life and some knowledge of the time and cost expended to produce it, the protection and care of natural growths of timber and the encouragement of all rural life.

To this end we request the public press of our state, and particularly the agricultural and horticultural journals, to make prominent the notice of Arbor day as proclaimed by the governor, and to urge, so far as may be practicable, the observance of the same.

We also recommend the planting of some tree, plant or seeds by every school district, with appropriate exercises by the pupils, as a proper observance of the day and would request individual planters generally, so far as it may be convenient, to give preference to Arbor day for their annual planting, to the end that the great state of Illinois shall with one accord join in making this one of the notable days of the year in a work of economy, wealth and beauty.

SANTA ANNA'S LEG

Soldier Who Effected Capture Now Living in California—Facts Regarding Historical Incident Recalled.

Secretary E. M. Prince, of the McLean County Historical society, has lately carried on some correspondence with a most interesting and unique personage. He is Edward Elvin Elliott, one of the few survivors of the Mexican war, and the one who now has the practically undisputed honor of being the man who personally captured the wooden leg of Santa Anna, the Mexican general, who fell precipitately in the battle of Cerro Gordo and leaving the artificial part of his anatomy behind. Mr. Prince read a paper before the last meeting of the State Historical society in Springfield last January, in which the incident was recalled in this part of the state was given the credit for being the military body which performed the capture, the wooden leg being sold out exhibition at the historical museum in Springfield. Following the reading of this paper, Mr. Prince learned that the man who was mentioned as having first taken hold of the deserted wooden leg where it was left in the carriage by the Mexican general was still living in San Rafael, Cal. He accordingly sent a copy of the paper as read at the society meeting, and received the following reply:

MR. ELLIOTT'S LETTER.

San Rafael, Cal., Feb. 27, 1906.—E. M. Prince, Dear Sir: Yesterday's mail brought a communication from you, to which I hasten to reply. With regard to Lieut. Duncan's statement it is practically correct. In fact, the whole history as published in Illinois State Journal is as correct as could well be written. I am perfectly willing you should add that I confirm the statement written by Lieut. Duncan. At the reorganization of Company B at Springfield, two young brothers, by the name of Harris and myself, joined the company through knowledge of Captain Elliott. I left the printing office where the sheet you sent to me was printed, then known as the Sangamon Journal, to go with Company B. I was learning the printing trade and had been for years past. It was then published by Stephen Frances Very truly,

STORY OF THE CAPTURE.

In Mr. Prince's paper read in Springfield the performances of the Fourth regiment at the battle of Cerro Gordo are recounted. He described the hasty retreat of the enemy when their batteries were attacked by the American troops charging across the open plain. The Fourth advanced rapidly to the Jalapa road, which stood the coach of Santa Anna, harnessed and ready to leave. Several claimants have at times appeared for the honor of personally taking the unique relic of the Mexican general.

Lieut. William L. Duncan, of Company B, in command of Companies B and G at the battle of Cerro Gordo, perhaps the only surviving commissioned officer of the regiment, for many years secretary of the California Associated Veterans of the Mexican war, gives the following graphic account of the event and the pursuit of the enemy:

"At an angle of the road we saw a large carriage, which had been rendered unserviceable by the battery, which had killed one of the team from which the Mexicans were cutting out the saddle mule on which they were mounting an officer. This we afterwards learned was General Santa Anna, whose capture would have ended the war. I said to Captain Jones, of G. company, 'Let's go down and see what they are doing?' but he replied 'No, we have no orders; we may be needed here.' After a few minutes' delay, chafing at the inaction, I gave the command 'Forward' and Companies B and G charged down the hill, scattering the Mexicans. Private Edward Elliott, of B company, was the first to reach the carriage and jumped in. He passed out first the cork leg, which was passed around from hand to hand and was finally carried off by a member of G company. At that time none of the Third or any other companies of the Fourth had come up. Elliott then handed out from Santa Anna's lunch on the front seat a roast chicken, of which I retained and devoured a leg. Then, showing me quietly a handful of doubloons, Ed said: 'There is a sack full under the front seat. What shall I do with them?' Stragglers from other commands were coming up and I feared a scramble for the gold might end in a fight among ourselves and bring odium on the men who had volunteered from a spirit of adventure and patriotism, and not from a desire for plunder. I said: 'Put them back, Ed; we are gentlemen; we did not come here to loot.' He did so and I kept quiet. Soon an aide of General Twigg's, I think a regular officer, rode up and, placing the gold in his charge for the government, I reformed my command.—Bloomington Pantograph

TEMPERANCE POEM.

'Squire J. M. Coons while rummaging among some old papers recently unearthed the manuscript of a lengthy poem which he wrote in 1870, during the great Murphy temperance movement, to be read at a Murphy meeting. He was conducting a general store in Franklin at the time and composed the poem at the instance of Miss Lizzie Gregory, now Mrs. Otto Baffe, of this city, and she read it as the welcoming address at a meeting for the temperance cause held in Franklin Monday, Oct. 13, 1870. The poem is a very clever one inviting attendance to the Murphy meeting and welcoming the citizens of Franklin, the name of every family residing there at that time being mentioned in rhyme.

BEN GREY PLAYERS.

The Ben Grey players were in Washington, D. C., in January of this year. The Washington Post said of them at that time: "Mr. Grey's experiment is extremely valuable as an educational factor along two distinct lines. It gives us a glimpse of the stage methods of the great dramatic time, and it also shows what effect can be produced by a good play, even with the barest possible stage environment. Of the players too much cannot be said in praise of their scholarly and impressive attainments as delineators of the Shakespearean drama."

HEARST COUNTERS

ON TAMMANY.

William R. Hearst is a national personage, and Tammany's attack upon him will have a national interest. Tammany has just declared against municipal ownership and all other forms of socialism. When it was doing this, it of course, had Hearst in mind. It remembers the close race which Hearst made for mayor of New York a few months ago against its own candidate, McClellan. Like nearly all other sane persons the chiefs of the wigwam believed that if the election had been honest Hearst would have received the office. There is no room to doubt that Hearst got more of the votes honestly cast and honestly counted than were given to McClellan.

Hearst now counters on Tammany. He is to run as an independent; this year for governor if the regular Democracy of the state refuses to nominate him. Tammany does not comprise the regular Democracy of the state of New York. It is regular in that state's big city, but outside of that municipality its jurisdiction and influence do not extend. Tammany's action and wishes are often repudiated by state conventions. It is Hearst's hope that this will be the case in 1906. Perhaps he will be successful in his crusade to turn down Tammany in the state assembly. He is a powerful fighter and his temper has been aroused. He is in the present fight to win if there is the faintest possibility of winning. If he wins he will be the biggest personage in the national convention of 1908.

Around the Fourth of July Hearst is to have a state conference of his own, which will bring forward some of the doctrines on which he is to make his canvass for governor, and which, incidentally, will tell the regular Democrats of the state that a failure to nominate him this year will mean open war by him on the organization. The regular convention of the Democracy will take place after this Hearst gathering comes off, and if the Democrats refuse to nominate him then he will nominate himself, and will try to repeat in the state at large the wonderful canvass which he made in the state's chief city four months ago. Thus the alternatives of accepting Hearst and of being able to make a hard fight for the governorship against the Republicans, or of rejecting Hearst and of being put far in the rear in the voting, will be presented to the Democratic leaders. The regular Democracy of New York have discovered that Hearst is a formidable fighter. The magnates of that party are doing some very hard thinking at this moment.

GOSSIP GALORE

ON SENATORSHIP

Proposition—Name of Dave McLean is Being Brought Forward by His Friends—T. F. Smith Said to Aspire to Seat in Upper House.

Since the withdrawal of Harry M. Tieknor from the state senator contest many rumors have been current regarding his successor. Ex-Governor Yates was here on Monday and held a conference with many of his friends and on Monday afternoon was accompanied to Springfield by F. H. Rowe, Judge M. T. Layman and E. F. Johnston. Monday evening rumor was current that George Scott had consented to the use of his name as a candidate but this proved to be without foundation.

The presence of C. F. Wemple, of Waverly, in the city Tuesday led many to believe that he was here to consult his friends preparatory to announcing his candidacy. He returned to Waverly on the afternoon train, however, without any indication that he had changed his original decision when he told his friends that he would not make the race.

Tuesday afternoon it was reported that Dave McLean, of Meredosia, would enter the lists as a senatorial candidate. The name of Mr. McLean was spoken of in connection with the legislative candidates earlier in the campaign and it was thought he might be a candidate for the house. Mr. McLean is a thorough going Republican and has many friends in the county.

Speculation as to the probable Democratic nominee for state senator has also been quite general and since the refusal of Judge Charles A. Barnes to allow his name to be considered few names have been mentioned in connection with that office.

It developed, however, recently that the name of Judge Barnes was put forward as a stall so that others, outside of the ring, who might have aspirations would be deterred from entering the race. This would enable the bosses to name the candidate when the senatorial convention met and would make it easy slodding for Tom. Rees, of Springfield, to get the nomination again if the Morgan county bosses could get the proper political quid pro quo.

There is an element in the Democratic party that is not altogether satisfied with the "system" of the bosses and at this particular time seem more than ever likely to rebel, and rebel with a vengeance, to this method of procedure. The two Sangamon county legislative candidates are not altogether pleased with the attitude of Morgan county Democrats in permitting the senatorship to go begging. These candidates for the house are anxious that Morgan county should furnish the senator as the fact is very evident that if Morgan county doesn't, one of them will have to withdraw to give Morgan county a place on the legislative ticket.

With a view to prevent this contingency friends of the Sangamon county Democratic candidates have conferred with some of the Morgan county Democrats and the result is a small sized senatorial boom for Ex-States Attorney T. F. Smith which is now in dry dock but which it is expected will be pushed from the stags into the political seas very soon. Certain it is that the present situation in the Forty-fifth senatorial district is furnishing gossip galore and many are kept guessing thereby.

DEATH RECORD

BONNER.

Mrs. E. L. Kinney has received word of the death at Sedalia, Mo., of Robert Bonner, brother of her mother, the late Mrs. Fannie Davis, of East North street. She will go to Sedalia to attend the funeral.

BURGESSER.

Q. Burgess, of Wichita, Kas., father of Mrs. Edward Rockwell, of this city, died very suddenly March 18 at his home in Wichita. He was in his usual health and the final summons came apparently without warning and he sank in a chair and breathed his last. He was 78 years of age. He is survived by his wife and five children: Mrs. Edward Rockwell, of Wichita; John, of Clayton, Ill., and Frank, of California.

Funeral services took place Thursday, March 22. Mrs. Rockwell was present at the funeral.

HUNT.

A six-weeks-old child of Mrs. Mary Hunt, of North Sandy street, was found dead in bed beside its mother early Tuesday morning. The mother found the dead child when she awakened about 4:20 o'clock in the morning. Coroner Spencer was notified of the death and deputized R. A. Withee of this city to hold the inquest. The coroner's jury convened at the Gillham undertaking parlors at 11 o'clock and after hearing the testimony of Dr. H. C. Campbell and some of the neighbors, gave as their verdict that death resulted from pneumonia.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I do not know what other mines are doing in the way of shipping dirt, stones, refuse and scrapings of the pit, and can only speak for the mines that I represent. They have not shipped me a single car of such description, but are shipping me lump coal clean and well screened over a shaker screen and mined day of loading. I am fortunate in having received seven cars of this class coal last night and on account of having bought some a few days before the extreme advance of the last few days at the mines, I am therefore able to sell you this well cleaned lump coal at the per bushel delivered. If you will take the trouble to investigate you will find that this is a lower price than prices at the mines. Now warrant you can no doubt buy "Black Jack" for less money, but I believe a trial will convince you that the best is the cheapest.

George S. Rogerson.

PROGRESS HAS BEEN SLOW

On Water Works Pipe Main Owing to Bad Weather Conditions—Ditching Machine Within Two Miles of Chapin—Work on Standpipe to Begin Soon.

Progress on the Jacksonville Water Works project so far as the laying of the water main is concerned has necessarily been slow during the last two months. The ditching machine, however, is within two miles of Chapin and with good weather Mr. Gardner says the work will proceed with surprising rapidity. The conditions to be encountered after passing the town of Chapin will be easier, yet than were those between Bluffs and Chapin and with the ditching machine working day and night the amount of ditch opened up will be largely increased. With the present condition of the ground it is absolutely impossible to operate the ditching machine as it sinks to such a depth that it is unable to propel itself.

Work on the standpipe to be erected near the site of the college hill reservoir will begin about the middle of April. The foundation has already been built and the tower will be erected within a few weeks, all of the material being on the ground. The standpipe will be sixty feet high.

We extend a welcome this week to the entire public to view our display of the season's newest styles in millinery.

DO YOU BELIEVE IN REPROBITY?

If Jacksonville people believe in looking after those things which tend to help Jacksonville and her citizens, it would be well to see that laundry work is not sent out of the city.

The Harms laundry on South Sandy street is one of the most modern equipped laundries in the state. Every piece of machinery is new and up to date and Mr. Harms has in his employ from twelve to twenty people all residents of Jacksonville. Your laundry work done here will be done just as well as you can get any place in America and your money spent here means more work for Jacksonville people. Is this not a reasonable proposition? Place a trial order.

PECULIAR CAUSE. According to the Edwardsville Intelligencer of recent date, Charles Green, colored, of that place, committed suicide because the paving contract in that place was let by the city council to A. F. Franks of this city. It seems that the man had been promised a job by another contractor who bid on the paving, provided he received the contract, and consequently watched the proceedings of the council eagerly. When he heard that the Jacksonville man had secured the work, he saw his job vanish, and in his disappointment swallowed carbolic acid. He had been drinking heavily prior to the act.

JACKSONVILLE CHORAL CLUB

GAVE SPLENDID RENDITION OF COLERIDGE TAYLOR'S WORK.

At State Street Church, Under Able Leadership of W. B. Olds—Chorus Exhibited Excellent Training—Audience Enthusiastic—Soloists Fine.

Music lovers were delighted Tuesday evening with the annual concert of the Jacksonville Choral club at State Street church. The auditorium was well filled upon this occasion, the success of last year's concert being the best possible advertisement of the work of the club.

The program was in two parts, Longfellow's "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast" set to Coleridge Taylor's music, comprising the first part, and the "Death of Munchaba," which the club presented last winter, comprising the second part. The chorus of ninety voices was assisted by Mrs. Lillian French Read, soprano, Mr. Garnett Hedge, tenor, and Mr. Grant Hadley, baritone, all of Chicago.

Taylor's music to "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast" is wonderfully beautiful. Anyone who has read and admired the fascinating poem, and then hears the choral production, cannot but be deeply impressed with its great appropriateness and indefinable charm. The work of the chorus in giving vocal expression to this music showed in a high degree the result of the efficient and painstaking training they have received from their director, Mr. W. B. Olds. The music is sustained, with few great bursts of song, although varied from light and gay to grave and almost sombre. The voices blended in perfect unison, and the effect was highly delightful.

Mr. Garnett Hedge was the soloist of this part of the program, and his first appearance in this city was the occasion of an ovation. "Onaway! Awake! Beloved," the beautiful song of Chibabos, is excellently adapted to his fine tenor, and in his vocalization he displayed the true heroic quality, singing with intelligence, appreciation and ease.

The repetition of "The Death of Munchaba" by the club was a happy thought. A grand success last year, the production of Tuesday evening perhaps surpassed the previous effort. The most beautiful and touching music, sung with perfect feeling and accord, produced a profound effect upon the audience, perhaps the most critical one which has gathered in this city, and at the conclusion of the final strains, practically every person in the large audience remained seated, and expressed in enthusiastic applause appreciation of the chorus and soloists.

The music of the last composition exhibits many of the elements that characterize the "Wedding Feast." Though far different in sentiment, there is a bond between the two which cannot but be apparent to the crudest observer. The production does not call for great efforts in vocalization on the part of the chorus, and the manner in which the sustained measures were delicately shaded to the interpretation of the various scenes of the poem, marked the chorus as one of intelligence and power.

Mrs. Read and Mr. Hadley were the soloists for this portion of the program. Mrs. Read needs no introduction in this city. She firmly established herself at her former appearance here, and her beautiful singing last evening strengthened her popularity. Seldom does one see so perfectly exhibited in an artist, and so evident, a deep appreciation of her subject. Mrs. Read delighted her hearers as much by her very evident understanding and feeling, as by her bewitching, resonant voice.

Mr. Hadley gave evidence of the same intelligent appreciation and feeling that characterized Mrs. Read.

and his splendid baritone was used with wonderful effect.

Mr. Olds deserves the thanks of the musical public no less for bringing these artists to the city, than for his successful labor with the chorus. The results more than justified the instructor's hopes, and will be a lasting tribute to the organizer and director.

Mr. F. L. Woodmansee served in the exceedingly difficult role of pianist. An accompanist for such a concert must possess an intimate knowledge of the musical essentials, and must not less possess the ready adaptability required for successful accord with a chorus. These qualities Mr. Woodmansee exhibited to a marked degree, and no small measure of credit for the success of the concert is due to him.

Mr. Olds directed the singing of the chorus in a very capable manner.

The officers and members of the Jacksonville Choral club are: Mr. W. B. Olds, director, Mr. Francis L. Woodmansee, pianist; Mrs. Seth Hill, treasurer; Mr. W. S. Badger, vice president; Miss Katherine Suydam, secretary; Mr. C. W. Taylor, treasurer; Miss Charlotte Hayden, librarian.

Cline, Mrs. Vicente de Arilla, Phoebe Dummer, Kathleen Foster, Fairoff, Louise Guyette, Frances Harlowe, Charlotte Hayden, Lillian Havenhill, Sylvia Houston, Anne W. Jackson, Elizabeth Layman, Mrs. Mabel Lippert, Jeannette Leck, Clara Moore, Mildred Moore, Margaret McLaughlin, Charlotte Morris, Eva Noelsch, Harriet Parsons, Grace Potter, Sadie Potter, Nell Reaugh, Maude Rheinberger, Catherine Russell, Jane Russell, Garnet Rae, Hazel Ross, Georgia Scott, Zella Scott, Eloise Smith, Jessie Sorrells, Jeannette Thompson, Mrs. Seth Hill Tilden, Marion Winkley, Fannie Winkley.

Altos—Edith Adams, Hazel Brown, Carol Brown, Nellie Cunningham, Ella Crawford, Carrie Dunlap, Edith Ironmonger, Nellie Kehoe, M. Allen Leach, Olive Moore, Ruth Moore, Louise Robertson, Harriet Sewall, Mrs. R. O. Stoops, Helen Stausman, Katherine Suydam.

PISTOL CARRIERS SCORED. Ardmore, I. T., March 27.—This spring term of the federal court commenced here yesterday, with Judge Hosca Townsend presiding. A feature of the court's charge to the grand jury was his severe arraignment of pistol carriers, whom he declared a menace to the country.

PUNY CHILDREN. Words of Interest to Every Mother in Jacksonville.

"Surely mothers are not to blame for that which they cannot help," said our well known druggist, Mr. Lee P. Allcott during a recent interview, "but when we see so many thin, pale-faced and puny children on our streets we cannot help feeling that mothers are to blame, and we wish we could tell every mother in Jacksonville what Vinol will do for her children."

Vinol is not a patent medicine, but it contains in a highly concentrated form all the strength-creating and body building elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, without grease or oil. It does not upset the stomach like old fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions, and its taste is so delicious that children love it.

Vinol strengthens the most delicate stomach, makes rich, red blood, builds strong bone structure, creates hard, firm flesh tissue and rosy checked sturdy children are the inevitable result.

Mrs. Jennie Perse, of Mansfield, Ohio, says that her little boy had over-studied and was so run down that he was a mere shadow. Vinol made him a strong well boy in a remarkably short time.

Mr. Lee P. Allcott says, "For both children and adults Vinol is the greatest strength creator, body-builder and health-restorer we have ever sold, and we will gladly refund the money paid for it in every case where it fails to give satisfaction."—Lee P. Allcott, Druggist.

A DENIAL.

Berlin, March 28.—The North German Gazette to day semi-officially denied that Baron Speck von Sternberg and Count Paul Wolff-Meternich, respectively German ambassadors at Washington and London, had spread reports of the isolation of France. It is explained they only notified the cabinets at Washington and London that the proposal of Count Welsersheim, chief Austrian delegate to the Moroccan conference, looking to a settlement of Moroccan difficulties, had been favorably received by a majority of the delegates and that it formed the basis for bringing the conference to a happy conclusion.

IN STRICT CONFIDENCE.

Women Obtain Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Help.

She Has Guided Thousands to Health.—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Alice Berryhill.

It is a great satisfaction for a woman to feel that she can write to her doctor telling her the most private and confidential details about her illness, and know that her letter will be seen by a woman only.

Many thousands of cases of female diseases come before Mrs. Pinkham every year, some personally, others by mail. Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years under her direction and since her decease she has been advising sick women free of charge.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence of women, and every testimonial letter published is done so with the written consent or request of the writer. In order that other sick women may be benefited as she has been.

Mrs. Alice Berryhill, of 313 Boyce Street, Chattanooga, Tenn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"Three years ago life looked dark to me. I had ulceration and inflammation of the female organs and was in a serious condition. My health was completely broken down, and the doctor told me that if I was not operated upon I would die within six months. I told him I would have no operation but would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. He tried to influence me against it but I sent for the medicine that same day and began to use it faithfully. Within five days I felt relief that was not entirely cured until I used it for some time.

Your medicine is certainly fine. I have induced several friends and neighbors to take it and I know more than a dozen who had female troubles and who today are as well and strong as I am from using your Vegetable Compound."

Just as surely as Mrs. Berryhill was cured, will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman suffering from any form of female illness.

If you are sick write Mrs. Pinkham for advice. It is free and always helpful.

WELL DRESSED PORK

DO YOU THINK YOU WOULD LIKE SOME TO-MORROW NIGHT?

If so Go to the Christian Church and You Will Doubtless Be Well Gratified.

The young people's society of the Christian church with commendable zeal and purpose are striving to secure suitable entertainments and at the same time make a little money for a good cause and in line with this desirable spirit they have engaged Rev. C. A. Burton to deliver his famous lecture "Well Dressed Pork," at the church to-morrow evening.

Mr. Burton is a fine orator, a humorist of the clean engaging type and withal one who never fails to interest an audience which has the good fortune to listen to his efforts. His lecture is one which never fails to delight his hearers who enjoy a good laugh and at the same time listen to some homely truths told in an engaging manner. The admission is small and the proceeds will all be used for the best of causes and all that is taken will practically be the property of the young people for the expenses will be very light. It is a pleasure always to aid deserving young people when they are working for so commendable an object and when one can get the worth of his money several times over it is a double reason for investing.

CHILD INJURED.
Roy E. Dodsworth, eight-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Dodsworth, had three fingers of the left hand chopped off with an axe last Saturday by his younger brother, aged six years. The children were engaged in breaking up a box for kindling when the accident happened. The screams of the child attracted the mother and two of the finger tips were picked up immediately and placed upon the stumps. The tip of the forefinger could not be found. Dr. Purviance, of Liberty, was at once called and it is believed that the finger tips which were found will be restored to the hand. The injury was purely accidental but the escape from very serious injury was a narrow one.

Our formal Easter opening and display of the season's exclusive creations in millinery will take place to-morrow and promises to be a most impressive exhibit and rivalling any heretofore given in the city of Jacksonville. We trust our invitation to attend our reception will be met with a hearty response, which this event will merit.

The program was in charge of Miss Myrtle Larimore, assisted by Mrs. L. W. Snerley on the mandolin, and was an especially delightful one. Each number was given an artistic rendition. The program follows:

Mandolin Solos.....Selected.
Nocturne.....Schumann.
Spring Song.....Liedtke.
Lovers' Dream.....Liszt.

Secretary—Frank Huffaker.

Light refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

WEST MOUND ADDITION IS

PROVING ATTRACTIVE TO THOSE WHO WANT GOOD LOTS

Location Unexcelled—Owners Escape City Taxes—All Modern Conveniences Available—Growing Section.

West Mound addition is the name of the platted section of ground recently divided into lots by W. S. Jones and is a part of the Potts farm located at the west end terminus of the electric car line. With Mound avenue as a southern border, Grand avenue for an eastern border, a continuation of West College avenue for a northern border and Jones Place, a new street, for a western border, the addition is ideally located. Widening to the west is the beautiful and ever popular drive known as the Mound road, while opposite the property is the handsome suburban residence of Mr. Frank Robertson, known as Kilmarnock, with the Country club golf grounds near by. Just east is the Capps property where several handsome residences will probably be built this season while the general trend of the city's growth from a residence standpoint points with the accuracy of the needle's eye toward this excellent piece of residence property.

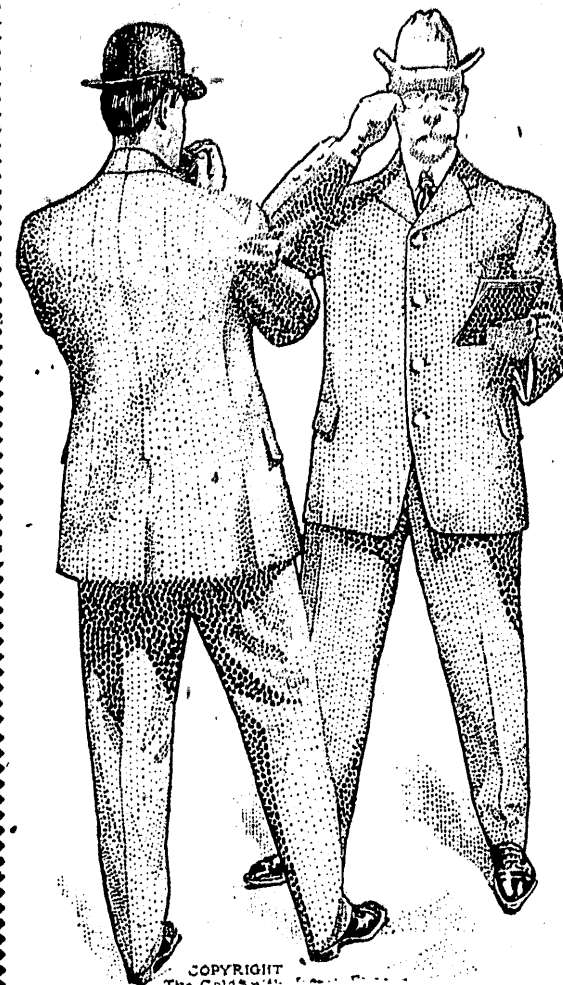

One hundred and thirty forest trees add to the natural beauty of the addition and these are well scattered. Four of the lots fronting on Mound avenue have already been purchased and the owners are Joseph Yingling and James G. Capps. Mr. Yingling purchased the corner lots known as lots 1 and 2 and paid $800 and $650 respectively. Lots 3 and 4 adjoining were bought for $600 each, by Mr. Capps. The corner lot has a frontage of 63 feet and a depth of 187 feet, while the other lots are of the uniform size, 30x180.

The main of the Jacksonville Water Works Co. will pass within six rods of this addition. Electrical conveniences will be furnished by the local company and there is a strong possibility that the car line will be extended to the end of the addition on the west which will bring the line to the beautiful and attractive home of Mr. Jones known as Maple-dale. There are fifty-six lots in the addition as platted and many other sales have been made but the deeds have not passed. Few suburban additions in this or any other city could be more attractive to prospective home builders than West Mound addition. Here the purchaser has the advantage of all the city privileges and yet is without the rule of the heavy city tax assessments. Those who expect to build this season or who are on the lookout for a desirable location for a home within the next year or two will do well to consult W. S. Jones at his office in the Hokenhull building where full particulars regarding the property may be obtained.

NOTICE OF TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.

An examination for teachers' certificates will be held at my office in the court house on Friday and Saturday, April 13 and 14.
